Additional Communication Equipment and IT

Active911

In additions to SMS and pagers, team members can elect to use the Active911 system. While the basic operation of that system is simplistic, a documentation site is available to learn more about this system here: https://active911.atlassian.net/wiki/spaces/AED/overview

Gmail

EPCSAR will provide you with a Gmail account – this will be your Rxx@epcsar.org. As with all EPCSAR provided equipment and resources it is to be used for EPCSAR purposes primarily and all messages contained within are property of EPCSAR
